

Bellarine Rail Trail Run Travel Guide

Melbourne to Queenscliff

- Please allow at least 80mins from Westgate bridge (assuming no road works).
- Geelong to Queenscliff takes roughly 25mins.
- Take 1st Geelong exit (Melbourne Rd / Princes Hwy) as you approach Geelong along the freeway rather than the new ring road. The road signs state Queenscliff exit.
- Travel along the highway approx 10km (not Garmin measured!) & take left into McKillop St (again marked as Queenscliff turn off on large road signs).
- McKillop St continues as the Bellarine Hwy (again well signed).
- Follow Bellarine Hwy to Queenscliff & signs to town centre (Hesse St). Hesse St more scenic route than Learmonth St that is highlighted on Google Map below.
- Queenscliff Railway Station is at the very bottom of Hesse St – marked “B” below.

Mornington Peninsula

- the car ferry leaves Sorrento at 7am and arrives Queenscliff approx 7.50am. It is a 1km trip to Queenscliff Railway Station – see map below.
- Ferries leave from both sides every hour on the hour (<http://www.searoad.com.au>)

Travel between Queenscliff & Drysdale Railway Stations

- Follow Bellarine Hwy towards Geelong
- Turn right at big roundabout at Grubb Rd
- Take 3rd exit (High St) at the next roundabout (intersection with Geelong-Portarlington Rd)
- Drysdale Station on the right along High St (see below map)
- Opposite for the return journey!
